Tennessee Historical Society

The Tennessee Historical Society is a non-profit, membership organization headquartered in Nashville, Tennessee. Established in 1849, the Society's purpose is to "promote interest in and preservation of all matters relating to the history of Tennessee."

Activities undertaken to support this purpose include publication of the Tennessee Historical Quarterly, public programs and lecture series, special projects such as publication of The Tennessee Encyclopedia of History and Culture, an active collection of artifacts and documents important to the history of Tennessee, and the coordination of Tennessee History Day.

Rules Changes

NHD Website Editor (E2, p. 33) – Although the content of this rule is the same, the platform is limited to NHDWebCentral™. NHDWebCentral™ is again the only option to build an NHD website.

Home Page Requirements (E4, p. 34) – In addition to the previous requirements, the home page must now include the total length of multimedia and the total number of all visible student composed words.

Rules Changes

Website Media Time Limit (E5, p. 34) – The website may contain multimedia clips that total no more than three minutes. The time limit includes both audio and video clips (including music).

Avoid External Hyperlinks (E6, p. 35) – To comply with the rule prohibiting links to external content (E5), you must remove the hyperlink from all URLs listed in on-screen source credits. The only external links allowed are those that direct the viewer to an internet site where they can download a free, secure, and legal download of software needed to view the site (e.g., Flash, QuickTime, and RealPlayer).

Rules Changes

Required Written Materials (E7, p. 35) – Your annotated bibliography and process paper must appear on the site in PDF format.

Remember

All websites must be built on the NHD platform, NHDWebCentral™

If you had a NHDWebCentral™ account last year, use the same username and password this year. If you have forgotten, use the prompt button
