

2022 Tennessee History Day Virtual Contest FAQ 1

Who can compete in Tennessee History Day?

The first and second place medalists at each regional contest qualify for the state contest. The third place medalist is the alternate. If a finalist drops out, we will inform the alternate as quickly as possible.

What is the registration fee and who has to pay?

The registration fee is $20 per student (NOT per entry). If you are a member of a group project, each student pays $20. Each member of a group project must pay, even if you are not planning on attending the competition. Specific registration directions are located on our website.

I have a prior obligation on Saturday, April 2, 2022. Do I have to attend?

Because the competition is virtual this year, there is no mandatory event to attend. There will be a virtual awards ceremony the day of the contest. The only mandatory obligation will be submitting your project and completing registration by the registration deadline on Monday, March 14, 2022 at midnight ET.

When is Tennessee History Day?

The virtual awards ceremony for Tennessee History Day will be hosted on Saturday, April 2, 2022. A link to the virtual awards ceremony will be shared through Zfairs, to the educators listed, as well as posted on the Zfairs homepages.

Will I be required to participate in an interview for my project?

No, we are not hosting interviews for student projects for this year's virtual competition.
